

Introduction

“A Passionate Gospel of True Love” is an esoteric True Love story of divine love. How in this jet age, two modern human beings discovered sacred love and this story is their progress from human to divine. This arcane, mystical True Love will teach human how to make love holy and create “Holy Kama Sutra”. In this divine ritual, man is a worshiper and woman is his deity. The consummate union between the worshiper and the goddess creates “Holy Kama Sutra”. Hence, the act of sex is the holiest of all acts. In the path of love true lovers create “Holy Kama Sutra” and live in the ultimate bliss. This book solves the mystery around Kama Sutra and the enigma around the love temples and erotica in the heart of Central India, in a small town called Khajuraho.

I have taken totally nine years to complete this “Bible of True Love”, although, inspiration of this book came to me in April 2002. However, I was reluctant to pen down the saga of my True Love, which required great courage to open up my life in front of millions of people. In the year 2003, January 28th, compelled, commanded and controlled by Goddess Durga, I formally began writing this book. It was a long journey and a difficult one too. This book compels you to enter the unknown realm of Ardhanarishwar and unravel the hidden secret, esoteric, ancient “Art of True Love & Holy Kama Sutra” The only solution for a blissful marriage.

Mystery of Kama Sutra

“So, do you believe in love?” Someone asked me once, and I replied, “I feel, I am here, in this world, just to teach the world, love”; the essence of True Love, the ritual of love making and how to unite with your Split half, Twin soul, True Love and create a passionate “Holy Kama Sutra”.

Poonaam Uppal

My answer obviously startled the person. However, this is one simple truth I have discovered in my 24 years painful odyssey “From Designer to Divine”. The truth is that, the art of True Love must be learnt and only True love evokes the divine. In my long penance of Goddess Durga, I have accidentally unlocked the unknown, paranormal realm of “Ardhanareshwar”. The ancient esoteric lost knowledge of Kama Shastra was transpired by the blue throated god, Lord Shiva and his wife Goddess Parvati, in their bliss full union ten thousands of years ago. To find happiness and bliss we must unravel the magical, mythical world and extinct lost cryptic writings shrouded in the misty Himalayan valley in the mysterious land of wise old Aryans. Once again two divine lovers, who were eons ago pulled apart by an evil curse of a soul, have arrived to teach human the lost “Ancient Art of True Love”. In the book “A Passionate Gospel of True Love, “The Prem Avatar”, and “Love Goddess” Poonaam Uppal unravels the occult most cryptic, esoteric “Ancient Art of True Love & Holy Kama Sutra”. For thousands of years these mysterious, arcane, ancient writings were buried in the snow clad Himalayas; In my book, I have unveiled how I have accidentally unlocked the mystery of Kama Sutra and the mandatory know-how to make love holy and create Holy Kama Sutra. Love making must be taught and it must be learnt. Once, this art was taught by Lord Shiva himself. Ancient people of India were well versed with it. However, today it is lost. Sex postures given in the Kama Sutra books are too perplexing for people to achieve. “Tantric Sex” also taught by Lord Shiva is extinct today. It cannot be acquired simply by learning yoga, kriyas, sexual postures and positions. The secret of Kama Sutra was first given to Nandi by Lord Shiva himself. Although I had at no point intended to teach this knowledge to the world, however I was compelled by my guide and guru Maa Durga to teach human this lost, extinct “Ancient Art of True Love” and unlock the mystery behind Ardhanarishwar and Kama Sutra, through my book ‘A Passionate Gospel of True Love’.

Are you in a happy marriage? How many truly happily married couples do you know? Are you enjoying a blissful relationship with your partner? As per the Statistics the answer is “No”, “Not at all” two out of three marriages fail. What are the reasons for failed marriages across the globe? And how do we find a solution? I strongly feel that arranged marriages are an arrangement of mind but “True Love is A Rare Occurrence Of Hearts” Neither Indian arranged marriage nor western love marriage has the answer. The correct answer is Holy Kama Sutra is the ultimate, final mathematical Doodle – Union of twin souls, split halves, true lovers and also a perfect solution for the modern menace called ‘Divorce-Breakup-Heartache’. Each soul must embark on a journey through the hidden pathway to the ancient world and cross the boundary to enter the unknown paranormal realm of true lovers, twin souls and split halves because only split halves, twin souls and true lovers are perfect made for each other couples. Human is still in a state of amnesia and cannot recall but the magnetic pull of twin souls, split halves and yearning to unite with ones’ twin soul is fierce in every human being. Each soul must find and unite with its twin soul. Every soul has a spiritual twin soul that is their exact polar opposite. Each of these twins retained a seed of their counterpart before they began their journey on this earth. These spiritual counterparts are linked together throughout eternity. No matter how far your twin soul is, if your yearning is fierce and sincere at the dawn of the Aquarius age, the powerful magnetic pull of twin soul will bring you face to face with your twin soul and True Lover. All twin souls would finally unite and move to the higher dimension.

Magnetic pull occurs only between Twin Souls, however when such occurrence takes place it's almost like you have been hit by a thunder bolt and before you can realize your heart, mind and soul unconsciously longs and craves for the proximity of your Twin Soul. Magnetic Pull among the Twin Soul & Split Halves is very mutual; their energy is so powerful that together they could move mountains; nevertheless this kind of attraction knows no boundaries of religion, cast, creed and race. Twin Souls and True lovers could connect with each other telepathically from ten thousand of miles away and remember their meeting is not a coincidence but a celestial blessing from the above. We all are in a never ending search for someone special, made for each other, the hand in glove spouse, just like the magic shoe of Cinderella that knew whom it belonged to, it shrunk for everyone who tried it but when Cinderella tried it just fitted. It was perfect for her since the prince was exclusively for Cinderella. It is the same way for everyone, your split half your prince charming or your Golden-Shoe could solely fit only you. A-Made-to-fit-each-other, custom made "Designer Couple" made by god himself. Such a couple would be able to create Holy Kama Sutra and live in sheer bliss.

The ancient knowledge of Kama Shastra was transpired by the blue throated god, Lord Shiva and his wife Goddess Parvati, in their blissful union 10,000 of years ago on the snowy peaks of Himalayas. Will the divine couple again descend upon this deteriorated earth to create a new gospel of love? Could that chance event, the great occurrence, take place again in this Black Age? The sacred, holiest and esoteric knowledge of consummate sex is hidden in the Kama Sutra postures as they are like math riddles waiting to be solved. All these postures are a kind of “Sutras of successful sex”, only we need to have the key to unlock them. These postures are found in the holiest of temples in India. Especially, in the Central Indian city called Khajuraho where these temples are nestled. Here, I would loudly announce, declare; promulgate Holy Kama Sutra as the holiest of scripture, ever written. You may wonder why I am considering Kama Sutra as a holy scripture. But in this last gasp of “Black Age”, human does not need a religion any more but sex act alone could become the means to salvation for the human beings of this withering planet earth and without any knowledge of ancient yoga sutra, the ritual of love making could reach human to the ultimate state of Nirvana.

“A Passionate Gospel of True Love” is the greatest book of True Love ever written, if my readers surrender themselves to the wisdom, the truth and the message of Holy Kama Sutra written by me with godly inspiration, they will be able to solve the inner relationship between a man and a woman. Why and how, sex is the most important aspect of a relationship and the easiest path to the divine. And without True Love, it is almost impossible for human to reach the highest sexual ecstasy. Sex must be waited for, longed for, artfully prepared and lingered for and reached as a pursuit of salvation as sex must come after the stage of True Love has been crossed. Before that, this fruit is forbidden, but not after. When the act of sex involves true lovers, sex becomes the most sacred act; it brings liberation for man and woman into each other and such union is not only a union of two bodies, but the union of body, heart and soul. If that union takes place with a deep desire for obsessive love and if there is desire for one another with an extreme fervency, which could completely possess the mind and the body of a couple in passion, then, such a union is not a mere union of two bodies, such a ritual cannot be termed as Just sex; but a divine union it is merging of the cosmos. The 23 ancient love temples of Khajuraho in Central India with the beautiful erotica sculpted on its walls are giving world the message that the erotica is the expression of an all absorbing love between a man and a woman – A Celebration of Love.

It all started with my search for True Love, which began not on the snowy beautiful peaks of Himalayas, that I originally belong to, as I call myself daughter of Himalaya. However, my search as planned by Gods for a higher purpose, due to sudden shift in spirituality towards the west had started on the dry land of Las Vegas. As of now, I am not sure when my search for True Love has really begin? In adulthood, the realization or the search of my True Love began in year 1996, on my August trip to the ‘Magic’ fashion show at Las Vegas where I was reminded of my search. Although, I am not aware, but I strongly feel Las Vegas, has spiritual history. The whole west coast is vibrating with the divine energy and California is the focal point, especially the city of Los Angeles, which is truly a land of “The lost angels”; it has blessings of many Gurus. After this trip, I was fully convinced; there is someone out there, who is my True Love, my other half. Dr. Soorya whom I was presently married to, is my husband and I, Moh Lal Rai, his wife, nevertheless, not true lovers. He could be my husband, but not my other half, and undoubtedly, he is not my True Love because True Love happens only once. However, was it easy to break the marriage and divorce him? I knew divorce is the worst menace in our society today. The world is how it is, primarily, because of breaking of the families. Simple fact, that I was still searching for someone confirmed my belief that Soorya and I were merely together to carry out some unfinished karma of our previous births, so are the other couples who are in unhappy, unpleasant and unfortunate marriages. However, how do you search for your split half, twin souls and your true love? Where was my other half, in which part of this universe? How do I find him?

My real search had begun eons ago, when I and my twin soul got separated from each other, then every birth I searched for him, and he searched for me and now when we are in the end hour of humanity, I have come to unite with him. Nonetheless, will I unite with him? Do true lovers get united? I asked this question to myself many times. Aren’t they jinxed? Aren’t true lovers carrying a curse of separation? Society separates them, be it modern Romeo and Juliet, Laila-Majnu, or in ancient times, the mighty Lord Ram and his lover Sita. The great God of Gods, Lord Krishna was separated from his beloved Radha; the fate is similar for the true lovers in past thousands of years. Now, when we are at the end of this Kaliyug, “The Black Age” earth is flooded with human beings, who are divided into thousands of linguistic, political, religious, and racial as well as gender groupings. Life at the end of ‘Black Age’ and dawn of the Aquarian Age are malicious, repugnant, profane, and short. At this juncture, when earthlings after their foiled attempt to get peace and love are looking skyward for help from the gods in the heaven above “Will the perfect lover, Lord Krishna descend upon this ever deteriorating earth to unite with his lover Radha and rescue few pure divine souls and create “Holy Kama Sutra? Will that happen? Why am I searching for True Love when I know true lovers are cursed to be separated? Even, if True Love is out there, does modern man have time for True Love? Will people search for True Love how I did? The deeper I decipher this thought, the more compound I find the answer. One thing, I know for sure that we are living in the end of times, the very last phase of ‘The Black Age’, when all the true lovers must unite and find the hidden meaning of Kama Sutra. After 24 years of penance, I have finally found the answer to the riddle of Kama Sutra which I will reveal through this book.

Déjàvu at Las Vegas

It is almost 19 years, since; I finished my studies in fashion and textile designing at Sophia College, Bombay. But I have never pursued fashion after my marriage. My husband Soorya is a doctor by profession. Soon after our marriage in 1990, we moved to a small town Knoxville in the State of Tennessee, USA and then to Kansas City. Both the places were not fashion Mecca in any sense. In 1991, my daughter Hreem was born. After that, I got entangled in the different roles of a wife, a mother, and a home maker. In my six years of stay in USA, this is the first occasion when I have travelled alone to attend a fashion and trade show in Las Vegas and only after a lot of persuasion, Soorya, who knew my obsession for fashion, gave into my request.

Today is my last day in Las Vegas, and the final day of the fall Magic Show which has become the largest, most comprehensive men's apparel and accessory trade show. I know that I am going to miss Las Vegas and its perpetual heartbeat, which never dies down. The snapping of shuffling cards, clicking of roulette wheel, the clatter of tossed dice, the spinning of slot machine and a whispered prayer for 21 – this is the doxology of Las Vegas. It is a soundtrack that will haunt me until I return to Vegas and its music. Excitement on the casino floor was at its peak at this desert oasis. There were many dealers standing at those Black Jack tables, the tall gawky dealer whose name plate read 'Tim Destin, Florida', had this look of a crazed loon out of a cage. He invited my friend Goldy and in next few minutes, the whole group was sitting at the table. I would have joined them too, but Black Jack was Latin to me. I moved far away from the table and tried to admire the lavish, Caesars Palace Casino, with its grand roman styling, massive columns and sparkling fountains. Pacing is everything in this seductive 24-hour city, Las Vegas. The lights are brighter, the colors are bolder and the bets are larger. As a matter of fact, everything is bigger, better, and more extravagant in the Neon city. It is truly, a city of excesses and over indulgence, nonetheless. I was too tired to indulge right now. I wished good night to my friend Goldy and the group and came out of the Casino.

It was late and there were not many people waiting for the shuttle. However, the gambling den, Las Vegas stayed alive all through the night. Vegas is a strange land with a peculiar vibration, every time, I travelled by shuttle, I felt déjàvu that I have been here, when someone mentioned something, I felt that something similar had been spoken before, in this very spot. There was no way I could have been to Vegas before, as I was visiting this city for the first time, I was absorbed in my thoughts, when I heard someone calling my name loudly, I turned back, but there was no one. Once again, I heard a voice followed by a loud thunder “Mob, very soon, in 1997, you will meet your True Love on this earth” However, I saw nobody around me. By now, I had grown accustomed to the Goddess, Maa Durga talking to me. Yet, this voice was unusual and very loud to be ignored and it had come with a roaring thunder sound. I was wondering of all the places in the world, why did I hear this forecast in the sin city Las Vegas? There were very few people waiting for the shuttle, but I had this strong urge to ask one of them if they heard what I had heard, if not the voice at least the thunder, by this time, the shuttle had already arrived. As soon as I stepped into the shuttle, the voice became more powerful and louder, “Mob, in 1997, you will meet your True Love on this earth” I reached my hotel room in a daze and gulped down two bottles of cold water. This broadcasting had shaken the life out of me. I kept thinking of the voice, which had subsided by now. Is this the way, broadcasting was done in the ancient times? Who could I share this strange occurrence with? I knew people might think I had gone absolutely, totally, mentally deranged and berserk, I talked to myself “Oh my God. What’s happening to me, what have I done wrong except worshiping you and following a righteous path? Then why is this happening to me?” “But, the truth is that I am searching for a man, who wholeheartedly and completely loves me, I too only love and belong to him and we live happily ever after?” I argued with myself, “Yes, I do, but what was that queer loud voice? I mean this loud broadcasting which prognosticated my future that soon I will meet my True Love, Ha! How am I hearing such things, this really is abnormal, besides what does that mean, as I am already married? But probably, True Love is what I had been searching for eternity, but how do I meet him? Where could he be? When do we meet?” Perhaps, this premonition could be as accurate as many of my previous premonitions and voices which had occurred first at my home town, Jabalpur, in the Central India and later, at the city of Madras in Southern India. Now, these loud voices, premonitions, forecasting’s and predictions prophesizing my future have become a part and parcel of my life. However, logical I try to be, in the end my premonitions come true, at least all the last ones, I had were hundred percent precise.

How could I deny and ignore this forecasting, when my previous premonition which I had at Madras, prior to my marriage was entirely accurate? That is how; today I am in a destiny marriage with my husband, Dr. Soorya. It was an instinctive knowledge – species of strange intuitions and voices which I had inherited in the spring of 1983. My whole life had metamorphosed, when from the lush hills of Himachal; a small carved wooden statue arrived at my doorstep in my home town Jabalpur, as a gift from an old friend. There was nothing distinctive about it, just a plain hand carved statue of Maa Durga. This was when unconsciously my association began with the intuitions and instinctive knowing, loud voices and strong premonitions. Like flashes of lightning, I heard the echo of my previous powerful voices at Madras and Jabalpur prior to my marriage. Memories began to play across the surface of my mind like an old movie on the screen and I was back in my childhood home – Wonderland 651, Napier Town... To know more read “A Passionate Gospel of True Love” it is “A Bible of True Love” and An Occult Message From Beyond.

From Designer to Divine

Debarati S Sen, TNN | Sep 27, 2014,

She is a fashion designer, an author, a believer in the concept of Ardhnarishwar and also identifies herself as a passionate devotee of Maa Durga. In a candid chat, Poonam Uppal, who calls herself 'Prem Avatar', 'Love Goddess', tells us about her journey towards spirituality...

Tell us about your experience with divinity...

It all began when someone gifted my mother a small wooden carved statue of Maa Durga from Himachal Pradesh. I was a child then but began worshipping the idol and became extremely attached. Maa Durga came into my life when I was at the crossroads and has, since then, guided me in every step. I have heard her talk and prophesize for me and tell me what to do. Her voice has been loud and clear when she spoke to me.

What is your book about?

My first novel, titled, A Passionate Gospel of True Love, is an occult message from beyond which urges every soul to enter the unknown paranormal realm of "Ardhanareshwar" and unravel the ancient, esoteric, cabalistic, 'art of true love' and the holy Kama Sutra.

What do you have to say about spirituality in general?

To me spirituality should take a human to a more peaceful path. I want every human being to learn what I learnt through pain and passion, and that is — the 'Dhai Akshar Prem Ke'. I believe in Sant Kabir's Doha: Pustak pad pad jag mua, Pundit bhayo na koi, Dhai akhar prem ke, Padhe so pundit hoe.

A tête-à-tête with Author Poonam Uppal

What inspired you to write this book?

I am a fashion designer by profession and I had absolutely no intention to become an author and write this “Bible of True Love”. Nevertheless, writing this book which is my own True Love story is my “mystical and spiritual responsibility” and it was known to me by higher forces in year 2003, after which I was compelled by the powerful Goddess Durga, who is my guide and Guru to leave my fashion business in the US and pen down my “true love story” in my oceanfront apartment in my vacation home at the “Bay of Bengal” in Chennai.

What is the message of your book?

The book is an occult message from the beyond and it urges human being to unite in the path of love, it is beginning of an Inquilab for the youth. It will create a history of a new kind, A Passionate Gospel of True Love unravels the mystery of Holy Kama Sutra which is connected with the end of the world prediction. Book has my many accurate predictions and the most prominent one — Tsunami was just the trailer movie is yet to come.

What is “Holy Kama Sutra”?

Holy Kama Sutra is the ultimate, final mathematical Droodle — Union of twin souls, split halves, true lovers. It is a revolution, a new world order, a new religion, a new dharma. In the black age the easiest way to Nirvana and Moksha is through love, sex and Holy Kama Sutra. “A Passionate Gospel of True Love” is a book of revelation of a revolution and also declaration of a new way of life which will change the way of thinking in human beings forever.

Is Twin Soul different from Soul Mate?

Twin Soul Is very different from Soul mate? The Twin Soul is often confused with the Soul Mate. The main difference between them is that Twin Souls are one: they are a unity; two bodies but they share one soul. The Soul Mates could be many other souls.

During all these lifetimes one has created many strong bonds with other members of their “soul family”, of which there were often love relationships as well. These related souls are called Soul Mates. The recognition of a Soul Mate is experienced by many people as wondrous but Twin Soul experience is out of this world and that of a sheer bliss.

What exactly is Twin Soul?

Twin Soul is an established fact in the Bhagavad Gita; the Veda's from the Hinduism teach us that the soul was created as one: a unity of both male and female. The soul is split into two opposite halves and both wander the earth, in an eternal search for each other throughout the entire Universe. Twin Souls will be drawn towards each other by the cord of memory that connects them. They recognize each other with an absolute certainty, and can never leave each other's sides. It is a search through many lifetimes, perhaps the Twin Soul concept can only now, in this Aquarius Era, gain knowledge, as human has entered a higher consciousness and ready for the ultimate completion. Two human souls, born from one and the same soul, therefore known to each other during many incarnations on earth.

So how do you know you have met your Twin Soul?

There is a deep, overpowering inner knowing. As soon as Twin Souls first meet, first lock eyes, the love between them is extremely intense. This feeling dismisses all logic and everything.

How can one find their True Lover, Twin Soul and Split half?

Poonaam Uppal A Passionate Gospel of True Love

The story describes the challenges; this girl faces to reach her ambition of becoming an internationally acclaimed designer. And, when she is at panache of her career “Love” attracts her. She is convinced by external supernatural forces and internal instincts (read to know more about them and what they are) to find her true love. Her search for true love connects her with her past life and love experiences. With such astounding revelations, she is compelled to understand and know about love more deeply. She goes on to decipher Kamasutra. As she decodes love, the universe conspires her to become a ‘Love Messiah’ for the rest of the world. The book is beautifully written and the story has been narrated powerfully. Although lengthy (about 1000 pages!) the book keeps the reader hooked with its twists, turns and tales! A Passionate Gospel of True Love’ will excite those who crave for love, romance and thrill!

Heart Rendering Narrative of True Love

As I read the bold and eventful narration I am propelled into a World of true love. The biography in simple words details the most warm yet a period full of angst and fervor. The complicated relationship between people already betrothed is best described in the romantic novel. I have found the book very engaging and well structured till the end. The inclusion intrigue and mystic revelations deliver a twist to the torrid love affair, it that makes the book more interesting.
